

Apaches Leave Sunday For Hutchinson

The Apache basketball squad accompanied by Coaches Babe Hallmark and Floyd Wagstaff will leave by plane Sunday for Hutchinson, Kan., and the National Junior College Basketball Tournament.

Coach Hallmark said the squad would leave Sunday in order to spend Monday getting ready for the ever-powerful winner of Region XI, the Nebraska-Iowa Region and the Apaches' first foe. The game will be played Tuesday night beginning at 9:30—the last game scheduled for that night.

If they win their first game, Coach Hallmark said they would probably play the winner of the Missouri-Michigan Region in the second game Thursday night. He said the Apaches were definitely in "the toughest bracket in the tournament."

The tournament will be held in the 10,000 seating capacity Hutchinson Sports Arena.

The Apaches are scheduled to train hard up until the time they leave. Squadman forward Buddy Stelter commented on the great amount of spirit being shown in workouts and said the team has been working more on screening plays in order to give Kelly Chapman more chances at the basket.

Coaches and ex-Apaches who have been to Hutchinson say it is the finest trip a basketball boy can make. Russell Boone, an ex, up from the University of Houston for the regional meet told the players "the trip to Hutchinson is the best trip for experience that a player can hope to make."

Tyler's hopes for a third national championship are well founded. Chapman is the second highest scorer in junior college basketball in the nation this year with a 29 point average for the season. Average height of the team is 6'3", and Coach Hallmark has been able to produce when the chips were down by taking the last nine games in a row.

The Apaches ended the season with three wins and five losses in the Longhorn Conference for a tie with Victoria for third place. They had a 24-12 win-loss season record.

"All profits from Regional XIV will be used to defray expenses for the Apaches, Regional Director Wagstaff said. Each year the winner of the regional tournament gets the money to finance the trip to Hutchinson.

Players making the trip will be Kelly Chapman, Bill Knight, Joe Prud'homme, Jimmy Cheshire, Philip Trammell, Andy Anderson, Buddy Stelter, Emmett Baker, Johnny Johnston, and Joe Thomas.

Students Vote Tomorrow On Proposed Amendments

Tomorrow students vote on six amendments to the Student Council Constitution.

If all amendments carry, as the student council hopes they will, President Jack Pollard said it would "mean a more dignified, a more workable, and a more respected student government."

For the most part, he said, the changes were "in procedure rather than additions to the constitution." He urged all students to vote for the six amendments.

Council member Larry Larison summarized the reason for proposal of the amendments by explaining that "the constitution we did have served the old student well because the old student body was dead, but now we have a live student body and consequently need a live constitution."

He added, however, that some of the proposed amendments have been generally accepted all along but were just not included in the constitution.

Among provisions are those dealing with 1. methods of amending the constitution, 2. an additional sponsor for the student council — the first "shall be the director of activities," 3. special procedure in conducting all class, student council and cheer leader elections.

Manny Smith originated the six amendments. The amendments and their location in the constitution are:

ARTICLE I, Section 2. — (d) The student council shall have the authority, by a majority vote of the members of the Council, to charter new student organizations.

ARTICLE II, Section 1 — (b) The president of the Student Council shall preside at all student assemblies.

ARTICLE III, Section 1 — Amendments to this constitution may be proposed in either of the following manners: (1) By two-thirds vote of the student council; or (2) By the presentation to the Student Council of a petition which contains the signatures of at least one-tenth of the total number of academic day students enrolled in Tyler Junior College.

Section 2 — (a) Amendments to this constitution shall be ratified by a two-thirds majority of all those students voting in a special election.

(b) An amendment shall become effective upon ratification.

ARTICLE IV — The Student Council shall annually have two sponsors, one of whom shall be chosen from the college faculty or

Spring Semester Total Enrollment Reaches 1647

Total enrollment for the spring semester at Tyler Junior College and Tyler District College is 1647 according to figures released by Miss Ava Lee Gentry, secretary to President H. E. Jenkins. The figure is an increase of 124 over last spring's enrollment of 1523.

Tyler Junior College totaled 1,307 as compared to 1135 last spring, or an increase of 172. Tyler District College totaled 340 as compared to 388 last spring, or a drop of 44.

Largest increase in Tyler Junior College was recorded in the Evening College with a jump from 342 in the spring of 1956 to 465 this spring.

Day enrollment at Tyler Junior College also increased, from 793 to 842 with general day academic rising from 558 to 618. The vocational division and Nursing Technicians were the only two day divisions not showing an increase.

Total enrollment for the spring semester for white students reached 1307 according to figures released by Miss Ava Lee Gentry, secretary to President H. E. Jenkins. The figure is an increase of 172 students over last spring's 1,135.

Largest increase was in the Evening College with a jump from 342 in the spring of 1956 to 465 this spring.

Day enrollment increased from 793 to 842 with general day academic rising from 558 to 618. The vocational division and Nursing Technicians were the only two day divisions which did not show some increase.

Belles To Appear At A&M College

Senior girls in the Apache Belles will entertain representatives from 29 senior colleges in the annual Texas A&M talent show at College Station Friday night.

For the past five years senior colleges from Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma have sent representative talent to this competitive show. This year's show will be staged in the new C. Rollie White Colosseum beginning at 7 p.m.

Director of the Belles Mrs. Mildred Stringer said the Aggieland Band would accompany all productions from the 29 colleges and the Belles. The Belles, she said, would not be in competition with the senior colleges. They were invited as guests to open and close the talent show.

Colleges from Texas, Louisiana, and Oklahoma will compete in the variety talent show. Mrs. Stringer said colleges and universities from Texas, included Baylor, the University of Texas, SMU, North Texas State.

Paynter, Murphy Will Serve 1000 High School Musicians

The director of bands at The Northwestern University, John J. Paynter, and Band Director of Brownsville High School James Murphy, will serve as clinicians for more than 1000 East Texas high school band members here March 21 and 22.

Twenty bands and their directors will convene in the W. A. Wise Auditorium for a mass two-day dress rehearsal preceeding Inter-scholastic League entry the following week in Kilgore.

Eddie Fowler, TJC band director and sponsor of the clinic, said each of the directors would have an hour to take their bands through their contest numbers with Paynter and Murphy on hand for constructive comments.

Fowler said both clinicians had records of being among the country's top clinicians. He said Murphy, past president of the Texas Music Association, had served in many clinics and Paynter's schedule called for a judgment assignment almost every weekend from January through June.

Paynter, at 28, is the youngest band director in the Big Ten. The distinguished accomplishments in his young career are numerous: director, composer, author, editor, professor. His meteoric rise began in 1946 when he entered Northwestern as a student. He was the band's advance representative to the Rose Bowl in Pasadena in 1949 and a year later was made acting director of bands during the 1950-51 marching and concert seasons.

He was appointed director of Marching Bands and Instructor in Theory in 1951 while completing his masters degree. He also held the post as assistant director of bands. In 1953, he was named to his present position.

In addition to heading the band department at Northwestern, Paynter is responsible for the brass

Deadline for turning in copy to the TJC Pow Wow is Friday noon before publication date. An exception will be made—and the deadline extended until Monday noon only if the story occurs sometime over the week-end or Monday morning.

The new deadline for faculty and students is a result of the paper's deadline being pushed up one day by Butler Publishing Company. All copy must be there by Monday afternoon before Wednesday publication date.

The TJC Pow Wow will be published every other Wednesday instead of Thursday.

Remaining publication dates are: Oct. 31, Nov. 14, Nov. 28, Dec. 12, Feb. 13, Feb. 27, March 13, March 27, April 10, April 25, May 8.

FOR KANSAS TRIP

Students To Operate Gas Pumps Two Days

The gas you buy today and tomorrow at the Warnell's Texaco Service Station at Glenwood and Vine between 7 a.m. and 10 p.m. will help send an Apache booster to Hutchinson.

Proceeds from a dance and box supper to be given Saturday night in Gentry Gym from 7:30 to 12 p.m. will also help send the boosters to Hutchinson. The admission will be 50 cents for couple and 75 cents stag. All college and high school students are invited.

The service station pumps will be handled by college students both Wednesday and Thursday. All profit made from the station those two days will go into the fund.

If students, teachers, and people of Tyler buy enough gas from the station Wednesday and Thursday there is a possibility that some 30 or 40 students can make the trip to Hutchinson.

The committees in charge of the trip to Kansas are Larry Larison, chairman of publicity for the Tyler papers, the college paper and three radio stations; Shaw Clifton, chairman of dance committee; Curtis Collier, chairman of the committee along with Bob Young in charge of getting boys at the pump; Ann Tunnell and Dimple Locker, in charge of food at the box supper and cookies and cakes at the filling station; Billy Jack Williamson will be in charge of bookkeeping.

Each chairman will be responsible for posters for his project, but Collier is general chairman of posters.

The Big Ten's youngest director—John P. Paynter, director of bands at Northwestern University, will be one of two clinicians at the first TJC band clinic March 21 and 22. James Murphy, Brownsville High School band director, and past president of the Texas Music association, will serve with Paynter.

Choir To Sing At CC Banquet

The 36-voice concert choir will highlight the entertainment at the Tyler Chamber of Commerce annual banquet at the Legion Hall, tomorrow at 8:00 p.m.

According to Dale Stonecipher, voice instructor, the group will sing "Little Black Train," "Set Down Servant," "Tradi Nuka," and a medley of five numbers from Sigmond Romberg's "Student Prince." They will perform on an elevated platform for visibility from all points of the hall.

Choir members are Frances Allen, Jean Board, Nancy Boring, E. B. Brooks, Dovie Burns, Sylvia Coalson, Mildred Curley, Bonnie Gilliam, James Hilton, Williams Huddleston, David Humphrey, William Jones, Naomi Langley, Pete Martinez, James McGuyer, Bobby Nichols, Jerry Payne, Ronzo Porter, James Ray, Ann Rylands, Fred Sale, Robert Smith, Ernest Stapleton.

Mickey Trimble, Jane Wilkerson, Annette Austin, Sybil Duffey, Shirley House, Carolyn Johnson, Frances Knighton, Billie McCaffree, Betty Musselwhite, George Sipper, Ann Yancy, Jimmy Harris, and Kenneth Griffin.

Birdsong To Play For CC Banquet

Lawrence Birdsong, speech and drama director will provide dinner background music on the Hammond organ at the Tyler Chamber of Commerce annual banquet meeting tomorrow night.

Several hundred persons became acquainted with Birdsong's musical talents when he played selections on the organ at Career Day recently during registration in the library, including a medley from Rogers and Hammerstein's "Oklahoma," and "The Yellow Rose of Texas."

Birdsong, a graduate of Baylor University, studied music at the Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y. and joined the TJC faculty in January.

Variety Show Entertains At Tyler High Assembly

The Variety Show, consisting of the TJC Combo, the dance band, the Belles, the Braves, Johnny Whitham, and Pete Martinez entertained at Tyler High assembly today. The show is well-known to area audiences. Favorite songs of performances include "Young Love," "After You've Gone," and "When the Saints Go Marchin' In."

Thurman Features Italian Renaissance

Italian Renaissance music—vocal and instrumental—was featured during Gene Thurman's informal music hour yesterday at 1 o'clock in the choir room. Several students and faculty members attended.

Thurman, language instructor, initiated this weekly program to give interested persons a chance to share in his enjoyment of music and to utilize his extensive record collection.

He invites everyone, both students and teachers, to attend. Among faculty members who have been present are Miss Mable Williams, head of the math department, Miss Elizabeth Bryarly, head of the English department, and Lawrence Birdsong, head of the speech department.

14 FTA Students Plan To Attend Convention

Fourteen students, a record number for the college, plan to attend the state convention of the Future Teachers Association in Austin, March 21-23, sponsor of the local chapter, Mrs. Mary Wallace, has announced.

They are scheduled to leave on Thursday noon by private cars and return Sunday morning. Those planning to make the trip are Howardine King, Diane Devine, Billy Sue McCaffree, Nelda Ellis, Ann Ray, Gloria Pope, Rebecca Edgar, Kenneth Griffin, Randall Stone, Emogene Lewis, Frank Smyrl, and Max Riley. Mrs. Wallace said their headquarters would be at the Driskell Hotel.

She said the general purpose of the convention was "to help students plan their future in the teaching profession."

Conducted tours will take students over the University of Texas, the state capitol, and the Texas Educational Agency.

Main speaker for the banquet will be Miss Waurine Walker of Austin who has served as president of the National Education Association and is presently employed by the Texas Education Agency as director of Teacher Relations and Certification.

Dana Williams, newly elected president of the Texas State Teachers Association, will address the convention body at the general session Saturday. Williams is superintendent of schools in Glade-water and has served as National Education Association director for Texas and as vice president of the Texas State Teachers Association.

As part of the convention program these workshops will be held Friday and Saturday mornings: Problems of Membership, Problems of Program Planning, Leaders' Workshop, Problems of Finance, Projects for Local Chapters, Constitutional Problems of the Local Chapter, and a Sponsor's Section.

Przywara Will Speak To Sigma Sigma Girls

S. J. Przywara, supervisor of Personnel Practices for General Electric, will be guest speaker for Sigma Sigma tomorrow at their regular meeting. Przywara will speak on the stenographic field in the General Electric Company, and answer questions concerning stenography at his company.

Przywara also spoke to a group of shorthand students here last March.

Sixteen TJC Instructors Attend TJCA Meeting

The majority of the 16 teachers who attended the annual Texas Junior College meeting at the Baker Hotel in Dallas the weekend of March 1 and 2 seemed to agree that the most important thing they received from the meeting was their contact with fellow instructors.

Here are some of their comments:

Mrs. Mary Wallace, director of guidance and teacher training, said she profited from "Professional contact with other teachers and the exchange of ideas with them." George Stiles, biology instructor, enjoyed "the association with people who are teaching the same thing as I am."

"It gave me an opportunity to renew old acquaintances and meet new people," said Herman Crow, history instructor.

History instructor Wiley Jenkins valued "The renewing of old acquaintances" and Mrs. Mable Williams, math instructor, stated she profited by the "interchange of views with math instructors as well as instructors in other fields."

The meeting itself embraced a general assembly, two sets of sectional meetings, a banquet and a business meeting.

Faculty Discusses Counseling Program

A three-member faculty panel discussed Student Counseling in a professional faculty meeting yesterday afternoon. Dr. Wiley Jenkins, chairman of the faculty committee, introduced panel members Dean E. M. Potter, in charge of all counseling, Mrs. Mary Wallace, director of guidance, and Eddie Fowler, psychology and sociology instructor.

Dean Potter stressed the importance of individual counseling. He gave as the three steps in TJC counseling, the faculty counseling crews who go into high schools and hold conferences with senior students, Career Day counseling by professional and business men, the testing program given on entrance to TJC, and finally the follow-up of the individual by Mrs. Wallace and individual instructors.

Mrs. Wallace discussed the various steps used in her counseling schedule following the testing program. She demonstrated the various aids and forms used in her Psychology III class and required of all beginning freshmen. They study the college handbook, a pamphlet on How to Study, fill in a Daily Activities Schedule to determine whether they know how to plan their time advantageously, and fill in a progress report at the end of the nine weeks. They also receive instructions on using the library from Mrs. Ethelwyn Foman, librarian.

If a student's daily activity schedule is not normal, Mrs. Wallace calls him in and discusses a balanced schedule. If a student shows D's and F's on his progress report, she calls him for special counseling.

Sixteen Have Overdue Books From Library

Posted on the bulletin board in the east hall of the main building is a list of students who have books overdue from the library.

These students are requested to return the books as soon as possible in order to clear their records. Students are Emmett Baker, Jerry E. Bridges, Doris Burcham, Melvin Cox, Phil Cyphers, Eddie Datz, J. Dean, Charles Goss, James Hayden, Joe Higginbotham, Frances Knighton, George Lowe, Ervin Moore, Kenneth Robertson, Roland Sanders, and Doris Yankley.

JC Magazine Reports Alvin Salaries High

Teachers just entering the profession may find looking into the Alvin school situation profitable, a report from the JC magazine, Messenger, shows.

"Alvin teachers earn the highest pay in Texas. Salaries start at $3800.

"Although there are 2300 pupils in the public schools and 425 full-time academic students in the junior college, the student ratio is maintained at 26 to 1," the report said.

The answer to good salaries and ideal student-teacher ratio?

"Two oilfields and two gasoline manufacturing plants in the school district . . . with enough oil to last 150 years."

In the general assembly Dr. John Furbay, education director of Trans-World airlines, spoke on "The One World Community". Dean E. E. Dody of the College of Fine Arts of the University of College of Fine Arts of the University of Texas spoke on "The Cultural Values of Education" at the banquet.

Texas JC Ass'n Elects Potter Vice-President

Dean E. M. Potter was elected vice-president of the Texas Junior College Association at its annual conference in Dallas Friday and Saturday March 1-2. Dr. Potter succeeded Conrad Vernon of LeTourneau Tech. Potter is also a member of the Steering committee and the Professional Development Committee in the association. He is president of the Longhorn Conference.

Dr. Ray Laird, Dean of Laredo College, was elected president succeeding W. Travis Williams of Panola Junior College.

Dr. Marvin Baker, Dean of Howard Junior College, was elected secretary-treasurer. He succeeded W. C. Weir of Schreiner Junior College.

The Texas Junior College Association is made up of institution memberships and the members of the association are primarily presidents and deans of Texas junior colleges.

The Association will meet next year in San Antonio Feb. 28 - March 1.

Texas A&M College Has Photo Contest

The Memorial Student Center Camera Committee of Texas A&M college is sponsoring its third annual "Texas College Photo Salon," open to students of any Texas college or university.

Purpose of the contest is to provide student photographers a means of expressing their talents and provide evaluation of their work, and also to promote interest in photography.

No entry will be accepted later than March 28. Judging will be March 30. Judges are to be Mrs. Emileta N. Terry, S. D. Chambers, and L. E. Stagg. The exhibition will be from April 1-10.

1. Four black and white prints of any subject may be entered by any one student.

2. Prints must be no larger than 16 x 20 and be mounted on standard 16 x 20 white mounts.

3. There will be no entry fee and no cash award.

4. Entries must be mailed prepaid in sufficient time to arrive at College Station no later than Thursday, March 28. Entries will be returned prepaid after the exhibit.

President H. E. Jenkins Attends NAC Meeting

President H. E. Jenkins met in Chicago last week with the National Accreditation Commission of which he is a member.

The commission is composed of outstanding educators from colleges and universities all over the United States. Purpose of the commission is to unify accreditation practices in the colleges of America.

Jenkins is the only member of the commission from a junior college. Other members are presidents and educators from senior colleges and universities all over the U. S.

The commission takes the place of an accreditation committee or organization. It is composed of members from various regional accreditation agencies, such as the Southern Association of Colleges, of which Dr. Jenkins is a committee member and which he represents on the national commission.

Dr. Jenkins also attended the National Advisory Board to Veterans for Higher Education in Washington a few days earlier.

He went from Chicago to Salt Lake City to attend the American Association of Junior Colleges annual convention.

Edmund Gleazer, vice-president of the American Association of Junior Colleges, recently visited TJC.

TJC Exes Do Practice Teaching In Tyler

Two former TJC students now enrolled at East Texas State have returned to Tyler to do their practice teaching. Shirely Pinkerton is doing her practice teaching at Henry Bell Elementary under another TJC ex, Mrs. Vida Jo Copeland Wooten. Rose Carnes is practice teaching at Andy Woods Elementary School.

Ordinarily, students do their practice teaching in a demonstration school connected with their college or in the town under supervision of the city schools in which the college is located.

Tyler schools, however, have an agreement with East Texas State and North Texas State to let seniors do practice teaching in the Tyler system.

Future Teachers Visit Moore Junior High

The Future Teachers group, accompanied by sponsor, Mrs. Mary Wallace, chose last week's regular meeting to see a demonstration of art work at Moore Junior High by Miss Charlotte Griesser's seventh grade students. Miss Griesser, a former TJC student, had presented an art display on KLTV recently. She will also exhibit it during the District TSTA meeting in Tyler, March 15-16.

Apaches Are Hutchinson Bound

Hutchinson, Kansas, make way for the Apaches!

The team is on its way to the National Junior College Tournament to try for a third national trophy for TJC. In the past 10 years the Apaches have been to the nationals seven times — they have won it twice and have placed every other time.

Although the path to Hutchinson is a well-worn one for TJC teams, it is new to the current team and student body. Many students have expressed the desire to attend the tournament and several committees are working on money-making projects. Whether or not you plan to go, let's get behind these projects and help support the team while they are away.

Even though the team got off to a slow start, it developed into one of the 16 best teams in the nation. During the Region XIV tournament they looked as if nothing could stop them—and nothing did. Dean E. M. Potter summed up the improvement well by saying "it has jelled into a winning aggregate."

Playing in the national tournament is not just another activity—it is a great privilege. Sports writer Fred Mendell of the Hutchinson News-Herald expressed it for us when he said "It is a tremendous honor for a college to have a team that can win its way into the national tournament. Only the best in the nation can even qualify."

In the seven years the tournament has been played in Hutchinson, 66 different teams from 27 different states have entered. Every region in the nation—from New York to California and from Florida to Washington—has been represented.

Let's get into the spirit of the tournament, make some money to send students to Hutchinson, and spur the boys on to victory for Region XIV. Pep rallies and words of encouragement between now and March 18 would help send the team off with the feeling we're behind them 100 per cent.

Here's to a great basketball team and a national championship.

Water Shortage Brings Problems

Water shortage is your and my problem now and will be for many years to come.

Unless we start planning and making storages, water will become a serious problem, but it takes an expert like Carl B. Brown of the Department of Agriculture to point out the seriousness of the water problem. In the control of reservoir silting Brown said, "Twenty-one per cent of the nation's (municipal) water supply reservoirs will last less than 50 years, another 25 per cent will last for 50 to 100 years, and only 54 per cent will supply enough storage (not estimated further needs) for the next 100 years."

According to Brown, then, within the next 25 years we can expect to really feel the water shortage which we write about today.

Without water, nothing on this earth would be possible, but most of us do not stop to think about this when we use water. Neither do we think how much water we use. If we think about water at all, our question is "Why do we run so low on water just at the time we need it?" The main reason we run low on water at the time we need it most is that our water supplies or storages are not big enough for the growing population.

Five developments since 1940 have made us realize we must take immediate steps to increase the conservation, improve the utilization, and expand the administration of our water resources. These are the Second World War, increases in population, shifts in industry, droughts, and pollution of streams and lakes. It was established in 1940 that our population in 1975 would be 175 million. Since then we have had to revise that estimate to 200.

At the outbreak of the war a major shift of population took place. The population of six far western states, for example, increased 25 to 52 per cent between 1940 and 1950.

The national increase was 15 per cent.

Industrial expansion, and with it a heavy demand for water, moved west and south. This move was because low-cost hydroelectric power drew a great deal of the wartime industry to the Pacific Northwest.

Large increases in the acreage under irrigation in the Far West and the rapid introduction of supplemental irrigation throughout the country contributed to the much heavier consumption of water.

In 1939 there were 17,243,395 acres in irrigated farms in 17 Western states. By 1949 the acreage had risen 39 per cent to 24,270,566 acres. Increases in the remainder of the country was 105 per cent.

These combined statistics make us realize the need for water conservation and in the last few years several steps have been taken to help save our water.

In 1954 President Eisenhower appointed a Cabinet Committee on Water Resources and Policy to review all water policies and programs, to assist in the coordination of activities of the various government agencies in the field of water, and to give consideration to national legislation on water resources.

Also there was another appropriation made in which Congress in 1954 made one million dollars available to the Public Health Service for the administration of the act and for research, studies, and surveys of the pollution problem, some of which was to be done on a cooperative basis with various states.

Much else has been done in the last 50 years to help give us a good water supply, but much more must be done in the next 50 years or we are going to run into serious trouble with our water supply. It is the job of every citizen to try to get bills passed through our local legislature which will help save the water today.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

Students Think Co-Eds Dress Better Than Men

Minneapolis, (ACP).—Colleges across the nation think coeds are better dressers than college men. A poll by the Associated Collegiate Press queried a representative cross-section of college students thus; "Who do you feel are the better dressers, in terms of neatness, color, and overall appearance, college men or college women?"

As one might expect, coeds feel somewhat stronger about their superiority than do men.

Men siding with coeds believe them to be more clothes conscious, others thought women had better taste for color, and some said social pressure induced girls to dress better. Representative comments from those who believe coeds are the better dressers:

"College women are trying to make a good impression on college men," said a Tyler Junior College (Tyler, Texas) freshman coed who seems to share the sentiments of many college men.

A freshman coed at Rochester Institute of Technology (Rochester, N. Y.) felt "Women have more of a 'need' to dress up, while a male freshman attending the University of Denver simply said, 'The girls are more conscious of clothes than men.'"

And a University of Maryland (College Park) junior coed puts it this way: "The majority of men just don't care, while the social pressure is on every woman to look neat at all times."

"Judgment is more often passed on girls than boys in regard to their dress," is the way a Wake Forest College (Winston-Salem, N. C.) male senior felt.

A male graduate at Syracuse University thought, "College men look sort of factory produced in the black and grey flannels. Girls have a much better sense of imagination with combinations, tones, and shades of color."

As far as college men go, a good number of both coeds and men feel they dress too sloppy and casual, or as one coed said: "Men are generally sloppy creatures."

However, men dress, there is a considerable amount of opinion among both college men and women that they are indeed better dressers. Here are a few typical remarks:

"Men's clothes are tailored more simply, without frills, and are usually neat," is the feeling of a Mississippi College freshman coed.

But a male freshman attending the College of Steubenville (Steubenville, Ohio) thought: "Men take pride in themselves and their clothes every day, while the girls keep most of their good clothes for dances and parties instead of school."

A male junior at Juniata College (Huntingdon, Pa.) looked at the situation like this: "It is easier for the fellows to look nice; the girls have to 'do too much' in order to look 'dressy'. But a Wake Forest College senior coed saw it as a matter of taste, in favor of the men: 'Women to often take it for granted that they are better dressed, but the men display better taste most of the time.'"

Approximately 200 people attended the annual Western Week dance which was a "big success" according to Shaw Clifton, president of Kappa Sigma Lambda, the organization sponsoring the dance. The registration book showed the names of 185 people.

Pollard's Letter To The Student Body

Congratulations, basketball team! You have come a long way in winning regional. You have found yourselves and are playing championship basketball.

Next, let's win the national tournament. We have the team to do it. Let's make sure we have enough students attending the tournament to give our team an extra boost.

Activities to earn our transportation to Hutchinson are coming along well; but to be successful, they need the co-operation of the entire student body. Each TJC student must get four people to buy gasoline on Apache Appreciation Days today and tomorrow at Warnell Texaco Service on Glenwood and Vine Avenue, if we are to raise enough money to help send a sizable cheering section.

Please turn in names and telephone numbers of contacted people to Curtis Collier, chairman of the gas-selling project, or to me. See your four people today!

Tomorrow you will be voting on a series of amendments to our constitution. In proposing them, the student council studied each point very carefully. Your representatives feel that these amendments are needed improvements. Let me urge you to consider them carefully and to vote for them.

Manny Smith wrote and rewrote the proposed amendments many times. Thanks for doing a good job, chairman of the constitution committee.

AKK To Present Spring Style Show

A style show with freshman and sophomore girls modeling new spring fashions in sports clothes, dressy attire, and other latest styles will be held for all college girls March 26 in the W. A. Wise Auditorium. Admission is free.

The affair is being sponsored by Atta Kula Kula and will be presented by Mayer & Schmidt. Miss Bobbie Erwin, buyer for the sports wear department, will narrate the show.

President Ann Ray, Vice-President Mary Lillian Stewart, and Secretary Ruth Ann Helvering selected the models in a March 7 meeting. Rosemary Garner, of Palestine, Nelwyn Williams, Van, Naomi Langley, Canton, and Carolyn Sullivan, Barbara Korkmas, and Sandra Perry, all of Tyler, will model. Cherry Jo McKinney and Karli Olsen, both of Tyler, will serve as alternates.

Miss Elizabeth Bryarby, AKK sponsor, has extended an invitation to all women faculty members to attend this, the next-to-the last important AKK meeting of the year.

In early May, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Caldwell of Tyler will host a luncheon for all college girls at the Women's Building.

Texas A&M receives one-third of all Available Funds from the University of Texas. The reason? A&B is a constitutional branch of the University.

The Available Fund (income) is all money that can be spent from investments of the University's permanent fund. The available fund comes from interest on U. S. state, and municipal bonds.

The permanent fund, not to be spent, comes from rents, royalties, and bonuses from the University's 2,100,000 acres of land.

Adage Holds True On Business Tour

"Seeing was believing" for 100 per cent of the Tyler High School students who toured the campus with their parents last year as guests of the School of Business.

Every girl whom Business Instructor Mrs. Johnny Abbey personally conducted around the college last year is enrolled in the School of Business this year.

So successful were Mrs. Johnny Abbey's invitational tours last spring that she is again inviting prospective business students and their parents to "see what the college and particularly the School of Business has to offer."

The several parents and high school students touring the campus in the afternoons this spring are also guests of the business instructor. She said the student-parent visitation had become one of the most important phases of her counseling program. All tours are made after school hours so as not to interfere with classes.

Home Ec Purchases Swing Needle Machine

The newest model in a swing needle electric sewing machine has been added to the clothing course in Home Ec.

Home Ec Instructor Mrs. Averille Greenshaw, said the machine would do all kinds of fancy stitches, sew on buttons, and make button holes without extra attachments. The clothing department, she said, owned three other machines but none equipped to do such a variety of stitches.

Students To Select 'Best Dressed' Girl

A TJC co-ed is eligible to be selected one of the 10 "Best Dressed College Girls in America" by Glamour, a women's fashion magazine.

The TJC Pow Wow, in co-operation with Glamour, is sponsoring a ballot election to select the candidate from this campus.

All students are urged to vote for the girl of their choice by submitting her name on the ballot in this issue.

Deadline Is March 19

Deadline for turning in ballots to the journalism lab is Tuesday, March 19. The winning candidate's picture must be turned into Glamour by April 1. An early deadline is necessary for getting pictures of the candidate.

The TJC candidate will enter a nation-wide contest sponsored by Glamour.

Three pictures (snapshots or photographs), one in a campus outfit, one in a date dress, and one in an off-campus daytime outfit, must accompany the candidate's entry.

If she desires, the Pow Wow photographer will make the pictures.

Winners will receive a "best-dressed" award and will be featured in the August issue of Glamour, the first issue of Glamour ever devoted entirely to college fashions, according to Kathleen Aston Casey, editor-in-chief.

To help guide in selecting a candidate, the editor said Glamour believes "taste, grooming, and planning are more important than money."

The following are 10 points listed by Lucia Depew, Glamour's publicity manager, that students should remember in choosing a candidate.

10 Points For 'Best Dressed'

1) A "Best Dressed" girl has a nice figure because a really well-dressed woman is never careless about her shape.

2) She knows that a great deal of her beauty depends on good grooming. She isn't just neat—she's impeccable.

3) She is aware that a college campus is NOT the place for an extravagant wardrobe and spends only an average amount on clothes. She uses imagination in managing her clothes budget.

4) She dresses according to the customs of her campus because being "well-dressed" is being appropriately dressed.

5) Although she understands her own college's fashion rules, she has individuality. The way she uses color and the kinds of accessories she wears will make even an everyday outfit seem unmistakably hers.

6) She knows the difference between good fashion and good college fashion; therefore, away from college she drops fads that are too collegiate for off-campus.

7) She knows how to wear make-up and doesn't go to extremes.

8) She is fussy about her hair by making a point of keeping it clean and shining. She wears a hair-do that it becoming and fashionable.

9) She knows her type and sticks to it. If a campus fad doesn't suit her style, she doesn't feel that she has to wear it.

10) She has an over-all wardrobe plan and knows how to use accessories to create different effects with her basic wardrobe.

Ingrid Bergman, Yul Brynner Star With Helen Hayes In 'Anastasia'

Ingrid Bergman, Yul Brynner, and Helen Hayes, three of the greatest stars of the screen today, combine their talents to bring "Anastasia" to the TYLER THE-ATER screen beginning Sunday, March 17.

A strange mixture of fact and fiction, the story is drawn from the tenuous but persistent beliefs that the youngest daughter of the last Russian Czar survived the Revolution and escaped execution from the hands of the Red Russians in 1918.

Yul Brynner, as a White Russian, ex-General Bounine, attempts to pass off Ingrid Bergman as the real Anastasia, and to collect the 10,000,000 pound legacy the Czar, Nicholas II left his daughter.

Only one person still lives who could identify Anastasia — her grandmother, the Dowager Empress of Russia, played by Helen Hayes.

Ingrid Bergman plays Anastasia with a sensitive charm in a triumphant return to an American film after a seven-year absence.

Yul Brynner brings not only great force to his role, but a charm that the public so well knows from his portrayal of the King of Siam in "The King and I."

The "first lady of the American stage," Helen Hayes, gives a performance of dignity and strength in her first film appearance for several years.

The very large Russian colony of both Paris and London, most of whom fled Russia during the Revolution, were employed by Director Anatole Litvak and Producer Buddy Adler to bring authenticity to this CinemaScope production.

In color by DeLuxe, "Anastasia" is a beautiful, masterful work of which the motion picture industry can be justly proud.

Students Choose Bergman, Dean For Oscar Award

Ingrid Bergman and James Dean lead the campus poll conducted to determine the students' choice for the annual Oscar award to be announced March 27 in a nation wide telecast. "Giant" won an almost unanimous vote for the best picture.

BEVERLY BENTLEY'S best picture choice was Ten Commandments, the best actress, Katherine Hepburn, and, added Beverly, "James Dean is just it."

MITCH COULTER listed as his choice, Ingrid Bergman, Kirk Douglas, and Giant. CHARLDA CHAPPLE felt that Ingrid Bergman's role in Anastasia was "very realistic and deserved an Oscar."

James Dean and Giant were her choices for best actor and picture. James Dean "is the best" thinks NANCINE LAMBERT. Ingrid Bergman and Giant got her vote for best actress and picture. PHIL TRAMMELL voted for James Dean, Katherine Hepburn, and Giant. DELORA HENEGAR voted for James Dean, Ingrid Bergman, and Giant.

GLENDIA JO LANG cast her vote for Rock Hudson, Ingrid Bergman, and Giant. Rock Hudson "has got it" according to BETTY SUE ROBERTS. Ingrid Bergman and Giant received her vote for best actress and picture.

Both JEAN RAYFORD and FARRAR LEWIS voted for James Dean, Carroll Baker, and Giant.

Parker, Chinnock Exchange Vows

Carolyn Parker and Ed Chinnock, both former TJC students, were married at the Immaculate Conception Church, February 12.

Carolyn attended TJC last semester and was selected by Pat Boone as one of the 10 most beautiful girls at the college. Thirty-one beauty candidates' pictures representing the various campus organizations were submitted. Carolyn was a home ec major.

Chinnock, a drama-journalism major, was a sports reporter for the Tyler Courier-Times-Morning Telegraph.

The couple will live in Lufkin where Chinnock has accepted a position as general news reporter for the Lufkin Daily News.

Region XIV Goes For 5th Crown In 10 Years

Apaches To Try For 3rd National JC Championship

Region XIV, which the Apaches represent March 18 in Hutchinson, has produced four national championships in their nine years of membership in the National Junior College Association. The Apaches represent the Region for the sixth time since 1948.

Region XIV has yet to place below eighth place in the national tournament.

The four national champions who have emerged from the 16-region association, are Tyler 1949-50, Wharton 1952, and Kilgore 1956. Lon Morris represented the region and placed fifth in 1953 and sixth in 1954, but a Lon Morris boy was chosen as the Outstanding Tournament player in 1954.

Region XIV has placed 13 men on the All Tournament Ten in the past nine years, two of whom were nominated two years in a row.

Herb Richardson of Tyler in 1948 was named to the All Tournament Ten, then in 1949 three Tyler men, Gerry Champion, Joe Palafax, and Bryan Miller placed.

Again in 1950 and '51 Tyler had two men nominated to the All Tournament Ten, O'Neal Weaver in '50 and '51 and Jack Mosher in '51.

In 1952 Wharton won the tournament and placed two men on the All Tournament Ten. They were Charles Brown and Roy Green.

Robert Burrow won this honor in 1953 for Lon Morris and in 1954 was the Outstanding Tournament Player. Jim Emerson also won the tournament Ten for Lon Morris in 1954.

Russell Boone and Milton Williams of Tyler made the All Tournament Ten in 1955.

Ed Erickson of Kilgore made the All Tournament in 1956.

Of the 13 men named to the All Tournament Ten the Tyler Apaches have furnished eight.

The Apaches won the national championship in 1949 and 1951, placed fourth in 1950, sixth in 1949, and eighth in 1955.

In 1945 the first tournament to be held by the NJCAA was played at Compton, Calif., and Pasadena won.

In 1946 Sacramento won the title and again in 1947 Compton took the national championship.

The tournament was held at Springfield, Mo. in 1948, the year

Region XIV entered, and Marin College, Calif., won.

Hutcheson, the salt city, was host for the National Junior College Tournament in the spring of 1949. The event has been held there ever since. Tyler defeated Hutchinson for the crown that year, 66-64.

Los Angeles took the crown in 1950, defeating Northeast Mississippi of Booneville, Miss., 67-63.

The winner of the 1951 tournament was Tyler over Northeast Mississippi, 93-75.

Wharton took the crown in 1952 with a triumph over Hibbing, Minn., 78-76.

Two Kansas teams battled for the national championship in 1953, and the El Dorado Grizzlies defeated the Arkansas City team, 82-64.

The 1954 national championship was won by Moberly, Missouri, Junior College. The Moberly boys defeated the Snow College of Utah.

The 1955 final tournament game was strictly a Missouri affair with Moberly and Hannibal battling it out for the championship. Moberly finally won in an overtime game.

The Kilgore Rangers took the national crown in 1956.

Buddy Stelter, and Joe Thomas. Kneeling are Joe Prud'homme and Charlie Anderson. The Apaches won the right to represent Region XIV in Nationals after defeating the Wharton Pioneers 91-78 in regional finals.

Tickets for the best laugh of the year, "Curse You, Jack Dalton," are on sale now. They may be purchased from Lawrence Birdsong, director of the melodrama, or from any member of the cast. (See story, page 8 for cast). Adult tickets are 50 cents, and student tickets 25 cents.

According to Birdsong, this is an opportunity for the audience to participate in the performance by encouraging the hero to get his girl and harassing the villain in his pursuit of evil.

Billy Ray Dickey Is University Of Houston Quarterback Prospect

Billy Ray Dickey is due to give tough competition for the quarterback slot at the University of Houston, according to the Cougar, the University's school paper. Top man for the quarterback slot is Sammy Blount, the fine broken field runner and excellent passer, who ran behind Don Flynn last season.

Two redshirts and a junior college transfer also appear to be top prospects, the Cougar reported. They are Billy Dickey, Tuti Stephens, Roy Garner, and Hillyer Ward. Ward is from the freshman team and according to the Cougar "is to be watched."

Dickey, the Apache first-string quarterback here last season, was named the Longhorn All-conference team and placed third on the Wigwam Wisemen All-American team that played in Jackson, Miss. last Dec. 14.

Apache Association Will Back Cagers In Kansas

TERRY VAUGHAN and TOMMY McCLELLAN

The Apache Association will be on hand next week when the basketball team takes the floor at Hutchinson, Kan. Plans are also being made for several students to go to Kansas free. Money-making projects to finance their trip include a box supper, taking the profit made on gas from a Warnell's Texaco service station at Vine and Glenwood (which the students will run), a variety show, and a dance in Gentry Gym, Saturday, 16, beginning at 7:30.

Athletes are happy and healthy this week because the "training table" menu has finally been changed from the same old corn, peas, and potatoes to more suitable diet.

We want the people in charge of the meals, besides those we have already talked with, to know we really appreciate the change. Two people in particular whom we want to commend are Doe, our cook, and Erlene, his assistant. They have both worked hard to satisfy some 50 athletes.

The Apache Association dance held recently, was a success despite stormy weather. Herman Crow, faculty sponsor, said it was the best dance he had attended at TJC.

Cherry Jo McKinney was crowned queen of the first Apache dance and received a necklace—a silver heart-shaped disc—and a bouquet of flowers.

The City Commercial Basketball League wound up their season last week with the TJC Warriors finishing in fourth place. This was a good season for the Warriors considering it was the first year for the Athletic Dorm to enter a team in the league.

Some of the top players for the Warriors were Tommy McClellan, Larry Corley, Jimmy Philpot, Bubba McLean, Mac Hall, and Ronnie Manchester.

HEAD COACH FLOYD WAGSTAFF—Director, Region XIV, NJCAA.

Floyd Wagstaff To Attend Meet In Hutchinson

Coach Floyd Wagstaff, as one of the 19 officers of the NJCAA, the National Junior College Athletic Association, and director of Region XIV, will attend athletic meetings as well as see the Tournament games in Hutchinson, Kansas March 18-25. Wagstaff is one of the six-member committee on Football and Committee Rules.

Dr. Reed K. Swenson of Weber College, Ogden, Utah is president of the association, Charles E. Seshier of Hutchinson Junior College is vice-president, Hovert Nolerjack of Benton Harbor, Mich., secretary, and Gerald D. Allord of Long Island Agricultural and Technical Institute, Framingdale, N. Y. is treasurer. The other 16 are directors from each of the 16 regions.

Region 14 is composed of these 14 colleges: Lon Morris, Tyler Junior College, Wharton Junior College, Kilgore, Allen Military Academy, Panola Junior College, Victoria College, San Antonio Junior College, Henderson Junior College, South Texas Junior College, Blinn College, Schreiner Institute, and Texarkana College.

Chapman Named Most Valuable In Region XIV

Kelly Chapman, who bounced the ball in from everywhere, and scored 43 points to pace the important Apache victory over the Wharton Pioneers 91-78 in Region XIV, was named Most Valuable Player.

A committee of Region XIV coaches and officials who voted Chapman Most Valuable Player also chose this all-Tournament Team:

Chapman of Tyler; Dick O'Neal, Victoria; Bill Holcome, and Ernie

Sena, Wharton; James Cone and Archie Carroll, Lon Morris; Jimmy Cheshire, Tyler; Horace Cleveland, Victoria; Bobby Coe, Paris; and Ed Erickson, Kilgore.

The Wharton victory gave Coach Babe Hallmark's Apaches the right to play in the National Junior College Tournament in Hutchinson, March 18.

The Apaches downed Wharton after the Pioneers had eliminated defending national champion Kilgore by a score of 73-55.

'Old Fashioned' Melodrama To Be Presented March 19

The drama department is working on an old fashioned melodrama to be presented in one act the night of March 19. In keeping with this old-fashioned theme, the audience is expected to join in the fun and display any kind of reaction it chooses such as booing, hissing, etc.

The play, "Curse You, Jack Dalton", is directed by Lawrence Birdsong, new speech instructor who became head of the drama department at mid-term.

The setting is an aristocratic mansion in New York. The plot emphasizes the old hero and villain encounter. Hero Jack Dalton (Jerry Payne) is in love with the maid, Frances Knighton, but the mother (Ann Russell) vigorously opposes and this situation leads to some distressing complications.

The lead, the maid, is played by Frances. Other members of the cast are Mickey Trimble as Egbert Van Horn, the villain; Lanelle Rowell as Anna Alvarado, the temptress; Ralph Fellers as Richard Blair, the maid's brother; and Carolyn Mangum as Eloise, the hero's sister.

Assistant Director Eddie Cohen is stage manager and is also in charge of lighting and setting. John Dearling is head of make-up and Jerry Sharrock is house manager. Publicity and ticket managers are Fellers who also plays brother of the maid and David Rochelle, respectively.

Dorm Chiefs Lead Intramural Basketball; Flashes Rank Second

The Dorm Chiefs are currently leading the six-team league of Intramural basketball with a 3-0 record.

The Frankston Flashes are second with a 2-0 mark. Other loop teams are the Apes, Roughnecks, Troup, and Bearhuggers.

Games are played every Thursday at the 10:16 period in Gentry Gym.

Tentative Date Set For Cager's Spring Training

Though basketball is at its height right now at TJC, Coach Babe Hallmark said a tentative date around May 1 had been planned for spring training.

Boys who will be back from this year's team are Emmett Baker, 6'3" guard from Brazosport; Philip Trammell, 6'1" guard from Laredo; Johnny Johnston, 6'5" center and forward from Jacksonville; Joe Thomas, 5'11" guard from Big Sandy; Buddy Stelter, 6'3" forward from Orange; and Charles Anderson, 5'11" guard from Owensboro, Ky.

Those graduating this year are Jimmy Cheshire, 6'4" forward from Lancaster; Joe Prud'homme, 5'10" guard from Pineland; Bill Knight, 6'6" forward from Sacramento, Ky., and Kelly Chapman, 6'4" center and forward from Owensboro, Ky. All are undecided as to a senior college next year.

Collier, Chapman Appear On KLTU's Sportscope

Curtis Collier, Apache Association president, and Apache basketball star, Kelly Chapman, appeared in Chuck Denson's sportscope at KLTU last night in behalf of the fund-raising campaign for the trip to the national basketball tournament in Hutchinson, Kansas, next week.

Griffin Elected President Of Future Teachers Club

Kenneth Griffin of Bullard was recently elected president of the local Future Teachers chapter. Griffin will take office next September with the rest of the new officers.

Other officers elected were secretary Billie Sue McCaffree of Van, and Treasurer Sarah Scott of Tyler. The vice president will be elected from the freshman class in the early fall.

Officers who will serve until the end of this semester are President Nelda Ellis of Chandler; Vice president Pete Martinez of Tyler; Secretary Gloria Pope of Grand Saline.

The future president of FTA believes the local chapter "gives people a chance to get an overall view of teaching and a chance to observe actual situations a teacher is likely to meet."

Griffin plans to major in secondary education and teach biology. He said he chose teaching because "it is a challenge to feel you have played a part in the accomplishments of some person's life." He also feels that teachers will receive higher pay in the future as a result of the teacher shortage. He plans to continue his education at Stephen F. Austin after leaving TJC next year.

Griffin is probably best known to most students as the one who plays the steel guitar in the TJC Combo—and is renowned for his rendition of the "Steel Guitar Rag."

He also plays the piano and sings in the TJC Concert Choir. His hobbies include "tinkering" with electrical appliances, making and listening to music, and girls.

Billie Sue, an English major, is a member of the Concert Choir, Atta Kula Kula, and the Apache Staff.

Sarah is a home economics major. She is a member of AKK and To Kalon.

Conference Votes To Disband Track

The Longhorn Conference has voted to disband with track and field events temporarily, the conference president, Dean E. M. Potter has announced.

Dr. Potter said conference officials decided there were not enough colleges entering teams of any size and strength to continue the events now.

Tennis events will be held, he said, on the regular scheduled date, April 27, but they will be run off in Alvin at Alvin Junior College instead of A&M. Alvin College is the non-voting member of the conference that enters for spring events.

Dr. Potter said he had ordered the championship trophy for the college winning the tennis meet and keys for first and second place winners for both men's and women's doubles.

'Flare' Omits Forecast On Tourney Outcome

Kilgore fans were among those who refused to take a guess as to where the Apaches' "comeback" would end. Before the Region XIV Tournament began, the college paper, the Flare, took a look at the picture but refused to commit itself.

"Predicting the winner for Region XIV tournament in Tyler next week is more difficult than is normal."

Doss then named the four strong teams, either of whom could take the championship: Wharton, Kilgore, Tyler, Lon Morris. Wharton had a good season record with no off games. Kilgore, he said, had played on-off basketball for the season, but no off games during the conference.

"Tyler's record is not much to boast of, but as the more recent games would indicate, they do have an outstanding squad. The Apaches downed the SMU frosh, a team that twice drubbed Kilgore. A team that stops Tyler must provide a defense for the amazing Kelly Chapman, who recently scored 55 points in a single contest."

FIREBUG*

A thousand curses on that slim,
Incendiary she
Who—calculating shrewdly my Combustibility—
Enflamed me with her eyes and let me burn so merrily
That when the fire was out she'd made
A perfect ash of me.

MORAL: Where there's fire—there's smoke. So pull yourself together, chum, and put a flame to the end of your Chesterfield King. Ah-h-h—that feels better. Take comfort in that regal, royal length. Enjoy the smoothest natural tobacco filter. Savor the smoothest tasting smoke today—packed more smoothly by ACCU-RAY!
